| The Cure for the Corrupt | Luke 5:27-32 | II.  |               | the Self-Satisfied |
|--------------------------|--------------|------|---------------|--------------------|
| ntroduction              |              |      | a             | against Jesus      |
|                          |              |      |               |                    |
| the Cinner               |              |      |               |                    |
| I the Sinner aby Jesus   |              |      |               |                    |
| aby Jesus                |              |      |               |                    |
|                          |              |      |               |                    |
|                          |              |      |               |                    |
| b to by Jesus            |              |      |               |                    |
|                          |              |      | b             | by Jesus           |
|                          |              |      |               |                    |
| c all for Jesus          |              |      |               |                    |
|                          |              |      |               |                    |
|                          |              |      |               |                    |
| dJesus                   |              |      |               |                    |
|                          |              |      |               |                    |
|                          |              | Conc | lusion |                    |
| e Jesus                  |              |      |               |                    |